STARTING GATE PROVES SUCCESSFUL.

Carr's System of Separate Stalls and Barriers Used With Good Besults at Fair Grounds,

HORSEMEN MUCH PLEASED.

Even Break Given Every Horse and Race Run on Its Merits-Jack Young Beat Jack De Mund and Lacey Crawford.

Horsemen who witnessed the first public fal of the Carr starting machine at the air Grounds yesterday agreed that the inciple was correct and that it was the only method to insure satisfactory starting, in that it places all responsibility on the owners, horses and riders, gives every horse an equal chance and unduly favors

The second race, in which there were II horses, was started by the gate. The start was made by Mr. Carr, who was flurried and excited, and who acted in the midst of Jockey Fauntleroy, who enjoys the reputation of being the most inefficient riler that ever bestrod a borse, spoiled the effect of the first start. Fauntieroy was on Chan-The horse was in his stall waiting for due. The horse was in his stall waiting for the other horses to be enclosed. Fauntle-roy was staring in open-mouthed wonder-ment at the operation when chandon be-came restive and langed forward through the barrier in front of his stall. The lunge was slight and would not have unseated Fauntleroy had that rider been paying at-tention to business. As it was Fauntleroy was thrown violently forward and alighted on his head. He was knocked out for some injustes, then revived and walked away inlinutes, then revived and walked away and afterwards rude and won races.

The horses were all set in the barrier and Mr. Carr was about to make his start when the accident occurred. There was a long delay to let Phillips put on his colors and get weighed. The other horses stood and get weighed. The other horses stood in the machine with riders up and no bishkets on. The day was cold and the wind sharp.

The day was cold and the wind sharp.

Finally Phillips did get up and Chandoo was at once placed in position. Mr. Carr, who was much excited by the delay and accident, jumped on the machine, cried. "Come on!" snapped the barrier and sent them away. They all broke perfectly. Of course, the fast breakers, tike Ermack and Polly Bixby, shot away from the slow beginners, like Chandoo, and the field was strung out. Before it had gane an eighth of a mile Ermack tired. Polly Bixby kept on and won. Chandoo after beginning glowly, ran a fine race and was second.

Horsemen applauded the gate and the start. They agreed that it was the thing in principle if not in practice. The way in which it saved horses pleased them exceptionally. Barring Chandoo and Ferer Duryea, every horse in the race stood perfectly still during the long delay needed to get a boy on Chandoo.

The introduction of the new gate in no wise affected play on the race. In fact, the betting was extremely lively and heavy. Chandoo, Ban Lution and others being backed for hoge sums.

Chandoo got off well, but was soon lost, because he is a very slow beginner, and ran a race that would have won had he been of running as is usual in other starts. But those who bet on the horse fell that they had no kick coming, save perhaus of Joskey Faintleroy's bad riding at the post, and they did not expect anything else from Faintleroy.

CLATE FAVORS FAST HERMERS.

GATE FAVORS PAST BREAKERS.

GATE FAVORS FAST BREAKERS.

Keen hotsemer agreed that the gate's most important function would be to classify horses. It will work to keep slow breakers out of obort-distance races and send them back to the distance affairs, where they really belong. Starters nowadays equalize the slow and fast breakers by letting the former come up running while the latter stand still. This is giving the fast breaker the worst of it, for he is entitled to all that his smartness of foot can get him. It is not any more fair or just to hold a fast breaker flat-footed over a short distance, because he would outrun allow breaker, than it would be to hold the slow breaker, than it would be to hold the slow breaker, than it would be to hold the slow breaker, than it would be to hold the slow breaker, than it would be to hold the more off, going a distance, on the plea that the former would go on while the latter would stop. But starters claim that they must manage to get the slow beginners running and the fast beginners standing for they claim that if they send them all away flat-footed the fast breakers will cuttren the slow breakers so much that they will make the start look bud hence startaway fiat-footed the fast breakers will outrun the slow breakers so much that they will make the start look bad. Hence starters are careful to see that fast breakers, like Srema, Miss Golightly and others of that hind, are standing flat-footed, while slow beginners are allowed to break moving.

If a horse is so slow a beginner that he cannot win over a short distance he is not entitled to get the best of it by being sint away flying while the fast breakers are standing still. W. M. Rogers and other horsesmen of intelligence seemed to think that horses would get so accustomed to breaking out of the machine that there would not be such a thing as a slow beginner.

MEETS OWNERS APPROVAL.

"The gate is, theoretically, what we want," said W. M. Hogers, owner of Fitz-kanet. "If we fit a horse and get him just right he will not be held at the post in long delays, twisted, turned, kicked and worn out. Nothing I hate so much as to put a feather edge on a horse, bet on him, and have a boy use him up twisting and turning at the post."

"Yes," said another horseman, "and it does away with some smart owner coaxing an assistant starter to take care of his horse, to hold yours, and give his room to break while you are in a jam.

"It buts it up to us," said a third. "It we cannot train our horses to break, or cannot get a rider to get them off, it is not say fault of the starter. I noticed in that new-gate start each horse ran as if he had a fenced-off track for thirty yards after helefit his stall. It stops crowding at and

JACK YOUNG WON HANDICAP.

W. Waldo Gave the Baker Colt a Fine Finish and Beat Lacy Crawford.

W. Waldo Gave the Baker Colt a Fine Finish and Beat Lacy Crawford.

While the trial of the new stafting gate was the feature at the Fair Grounds yestorday, the races merited attention. The feature event resulted in a victory for the 3-year-old Jack Young over the other 3-year-old Lacy Crawford, who was a nose in front of the 3-year-old Jack No Mund. Young and De Mund ruied favorites at 2 to 1. Crawford was held at 15 to 1.

De Mund set a fast pace to the last eighth. Crawford followed him most of the way, while Young trailed away back. Bill Massle, third choice, kept Crawford company to the haif, then stopped to nothing. De Mund led pair by five lengths to the three-eighths polo. De Mund moved away at the half, and Jack Young began his move. He closed up live lengths on Crawford, and both swung into the stretch on even terms. De Mund led to the stretch on even terms. De Mund led to the stretch on even terms. De Mund led to the stretch by seven lengths and appeared a certain winner. Young collared him at the final eighth pole, and it seemed that De Mund pinned back his ears and tried to bite Young, Just at this point Crawford seemed beaten, and Young appeared to be winning ansity.

At the sixteenth pole, however, Crawford came again on the outside, and De Mund also came again. Both of them passed Young, anglers to be winning, it must have been that the rush of the apparently beaten pair caught Waldo, on Young, napping. He was a full length behind, fifty yards from the wire, and apparently shut off. He jammed Young between Crawford and De Mund, forced him through a small opening, and again the other two appeared to bite and stop. De Mund again pinned his ears back and seemed to want to bite Young. Bonner rode Crawford badly, and in a nose finish Young won, because he was the truest hurse and best rodeen, It was a very fine ride for little Waldo and a rare plucky race for Young.

The time of the race, 150, was excellent, Young.

The time of the race, 150, was excellent, the raw day and high wind considered. It was just the same time as Runnels made last year, carrying 26 pounds. Runnels, however, rounged home, while the 3-year-olds were all out yesterday.

EAKER PRICES JACK YOUNG. It was said after the race yesterday that and year, carrying 39 pounds. Runnels and the year romped nome, while the 2-year old subtract of the price of 10,000 on Jack Young. Many people pooh-poolied the price, and said it was $7,09 more than $1.000 mor after the start. Boys cannot cut in and consideration will show that she did not best anything of any merit.

FOUR ODDS-ON SHOTS BEATEN. The faults of the machine are that its great weight and length make it hard to handle, supecially in had weather. With a soft and muddy track and inheid the trucks would cut in so deep that it would be almost impossible to move it from one place to another. Mr. Carr says that he can reduce the weight by one-half. It weighs 5,99 pounds now. By the use of wood for certain parts of the machine the weight can be very much reduced.

There is some danger of a horse rearing or leaping over the partitions between the stails or over the barrier in front, as Chandoo did yesterday. This can ne doubt be prevented by making the partitions a little higher and by using a supplementary harrier as high as the horse's eyes to seeady them. This barrier could be removed just prior to the start.

Many horsenen said that the barrier suits them, and that the business of transportation, safety, etc., lies with the associations to show. Suppose four horses in one race were it to it to win and a 6-to-1 shot like Aules beat thom, what would the neople say? Three of the four longest horse in one race were it to it to win and a 6-to-1 shot like Aules beat thom, what was beaten but three noses for second place. One of the three long shot placed horses from all directions.

Kindred, Maggie Davis and Ed L. were miserably ridden and Lass of Langden appeared to alk after running well to the stretch. Hobart went well and had be not been a shade short he would have been in front of the short-priced horses.

JACK YOUNG WON HANDICAP. stretch. Hobart went well and had he not been a shade short he would have been in front of the short-priced horses.

The race is a funny-looking one all around. When bettors, bookmakers and every one else figure Ed L. Lass of Langden. Kindred and Margie Davis as the contenders, and when they figure Aules. Hobart, Nobleman and Santa Ventura to run one, two, three, four and last, and when the fourth they figure to finish in front, what is the use of figuring?

Shute will go well. Pathos, if lucky, will run a good race.

The fourth race to-duy very fetcibly reminds one of the sixth race yesterday. But it is likely that they will run it differently. Weight off on Kindred, Maggie Davis and Lass of Langden. Kindred will have little Donegan, a nice, honest lad, up, but a boy who will not ridd in anything like a crowd. Pass Kindred up. Maggie Davis is due and recoy and in her spot. She was cut off yesterday when running in from. A biast of cold struck her weak and sore infiles and knocked her out for a moment. Then she came again, and fast, too.

Erema will skim along, too, but she is so fast a beginner that Mr. Dasle is obliged to leave her at the post lest she should make his starts appear bad. Carr's gate for Erema. She will be hard to heat. Lass of Langden is a horse that Mr. Dastein cannot win with, for, good trained though he is, he cannot fit this lady so that she will not suik. They thought veima Clark was a floral the other day at five and a half furiongs. It is said that they bet a million, more or less, an her. She was off badly, but rain a good race.

Crolx d'or runs one good race, then a bad one, then a good one. His bast was his bad one. This is his turn to run a good one He will not mind the weight, as he is good just now. The figures on the black-loards worry some houres more than the ligares in the scale books. Miss Quick has a chance with ninety-three pounds up. Delagoos has a chance at the weights, but the others slound beat her, especially as Pauntierov will be on her.

It seems to be between Croix d'Or, Maggie

They had Nobleman good yesterday and tel on him at post time. Off badly and cut off twice, he ran a splendid race and findshed to strongly. He should be second here. With a good rider up, Handspinner will no well and should be third. Leenja and Lindenella seem to have the last race between them, and on what they did last time Lindenella seems best.

Before Cresceus made his appearance it was announced from the judges' stand that record-breaking time was to any adout of the question, but that the son of Robert McGregor would do his best. 'Dan Patch, the pacer, also made an effort to reduce the world's mark of 1:594, but his effort proved no better than that of Cresceus, the mile being paced in 2:015.

In the race for 2:13 pacers, Gentry won first money from Cubancia after Rank had been substituted for McCoy. The 2:24 trot

The Reverend G. W. Briggs Gives Bond to Appear in Court.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Paducah, Ky., Oct. 3.—The Reverend G. W. Briggs, who stabled T. J. Garr in a hight over the preacher's child last night, surrendered to the Chief of Polics to-day. He was released on 500 ball to answer Thursday morning any charge which may be preferred against him.

Garr's physicians to-day expressed the opinion that he would recover unless bloodpoison sets in.

The Reverend Mr. Briggs is quite repentant over his action, but he still refuses to make any statement for the press. The doctors would not allow newspaper men to interview Mr. Garr.

Rubbing with liniments, constanting application of plasters; in fact anything that will produce counter-irritation, is good that will produce counter-irritation, is good that will produce counter-irritation, but these simple remedies do not reach the sest of the disease nor touch the real cause, and relief, is therefore only temporary.

Rheumatism is due to Uric Acid and other irritant poisons in the blood, and as it circulates through the system, these acid poisons are deposited in the muscles, joints and nerves, and exposure to night air, cold east winds, or any sudden change in the weather, will bring on an attack, which may last for a few days or linger on for with Rheumatism leaves you weaker and the blood in poorer condition, while the corroding acids are gradually consuming the oils and fluids that lubricate the muscles and joints, and they become stiff and sometimes immovable.

Rheumatism, with its sharp, cutting pains, can never be conquered until the acid blood has been cleaned and purified, and all irritating substances neutralized and acid blood has been cleansed and purified, and all irritating substances neutralized and filtered out of the system, and nothing does this so promptly and effectually as S. S. Under the purifying and tonic effects of this vegetable remedy the blood is not only made pure and strong again, but the general health is rapidly built up and the sufferer obtains happy relief from the fortaring, nagging pains of Rheumatism.

Get rid of Rheumatism.
